Everraw Foods

By Lucky, Cohort 1

What started as an idea at Mesa became EverRaw – a spreads brand that hit ₹2.5 lakh in revenue within 10 weeks on campus, reaching 500 customers through Mesa's BYOB sprint. Lucky then took it to the biggest stage – pitching EverRaw on Shark Tank India Season 5.

Ghazal Alagh

Co-founder, MamaEarth

mamaearth
Ghazal joined as guest of honor for Cohort 2's convocation. Students pitched their ventures live – 2 businesses from Mesa Startup Lab earned follow-ups with her team, and several students came away with hiring opportunities.

Mesa Demo Day

Demo Days are hosted by the Mesa Startup Lab, where students building their own ventures pitch their businesses to VCs from across the country. Every founder walks away with direct 1:1 feedback from seasoned investors, while the strongest pitches open doors to follow-up meetings and real investment opportunities.

epigamia

Epigamia

As competition heated up in the high-protein yogurt space, Epigamia needed to decide whether to double down or pivot its strategy. Mesa students led market research, 100+ consumer interviews, and taste tests to uncover insights, then built a 24-month roadmap across brand, product, and growth. Two students from this team later joined Epigamia as Chiefs of Staff.

Blue Tokai

Blue Tokai wanted to scale its footprint smarter, not faster. Choosing locations based on foot traffic was a challenge. Mesa students built a framework that blended traffic, competition, and one decision-making metric. Their prototype tool helped identify high-potential clusters.

Eligibility Criteria

Education

A bachelor's degree in any discipline

Professional Experience

1+ year of work experience in any domain

A step-by-step guide

1

Take the Mesa Admissions Test (MAT)

Designed to evaluate like a Founders' Office interview, the MAT holistically tests candidates across multiple aspects including their aptitude, business acumen, first principles thinking, ability to sell & more.

Submit your Application

Upload an updated 1-pager resume & fill in your basic details to complete your application.

Interview with our Admissions Panel

Shortlisted candidates are invited to book their interview slot with the admissions panel (charged at Rs. 1500). Interviews span 2 stages: screening rounds & case evaluations, followed by group discussions & conversations with Mesa Leadership.

Receive the verdict

You will receive your result within 10 working days of your last interview, with one of the three options: selected, waitlisted, or rejected. Waitlisted candidates hear back on their final candidature at the end of the admissions round.
